

CONTENTS

THE CONTRIBUTORS		7
Asher Shkedi	Introduction Jewish Values — An Educational Approach to the Jewish Sources	9
I. CONCEPTS AND APPROACHES IN JEWISH EDUCATION
Michael Rosenak	Commitment and Non-commit- ment in Jewish Value Education	25
David Resnick	From Ought To Is: On the Relationship of Jewish Values Education to Jewish Life	46
Barry Chazan	Should We Teach Jewish Values?	66
Howard Deitcher	The Child's Understanding of the Aggadic Literature	84
Gaby Horenczyk	The Actualization of Jewish Identity: Research Findings and Educational Implications	100
H. A. Alexander	Recent Trends in the Philosophy of Jewish Education: Chazan, Rosenak, and Beyond	121
II. CURRICULUM AND THE TEACHER
Isa Aron	The Teacher's Role in Curriculum Reform	155
Asher Shkedi	School-based Adaptation of Curriculum: Consideration of Jewish Values Curriculum Implementation	174

Barry W. Holtz	Making 'The Practical' Real: The Experience of the Melton Research Center in Curriculum Design (English Abstract)	196
----------------	---	-----

III. IMPLEMENTATION OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS IN THE FIELD

Michael Gillis	Teaching Jewish Values and Teaching Jewish Texts in a Melbourne Jewish Day School	201
----------------	---	-----

Mark Smiley	The Computer As Tutee: The Implementation of Computer Projects in the Rabbinics Curriculum — An Experiment That Failed	227
-------------	--	-----

IV. ANALYSIS OF APPROACHES AND OF CURRICULA

Jonathan Cohen	Recent Proposals for the Teaching of Jewish Thought: The Contribution of the Jewish Values Project (English Abstract)	249
----------------	---	-----

Rafi Sheniak	Judaism And Christianity: The Development of a Study Unit in Tradition in the "Tarbut-Jerusalem" Program, 1974-1983 (English Abstract)	252
--------------	---	-----

Shimon Frost	Value Education in a Pluralistic Society: Educational Thought and Curricular Content in Jewish School Systems in Interwar Poland (English Abstract)	254
--------------	---	-----

HEBREW SECTION